BRANDING 101

WHAT IS A BRAND?

Our brand is the collective market perception and experience of our college. It's the impression we leave on our students, visitors, alumni and staff. All individuals have a unique perception of our college. When there starts to be commonalities in individual perceptions, our brand takes shape. REMEMBER: A logo is NOT a brand, it's part of a brand identity.

WHAT IS BRANDING?

Branding is the process of building and shaping RRCC's brand through visual, verbal and written communications. It's how we promote, implement and influence the perception of our brand.

WHAT IS A BRAND IDENTITY?

Our brand identity is the collection of all resources that RRCC uses to distinguish itself. Think of it like a brand toolkit. It's how our brand looks, sounds and feels. This includes RRCC's logo, design standards/assets, brand personality, taglines and brand colors.

WHY IS BRANDING IMPORTANT?

- Improves brand recognition and awareness.
- Increases RRCC's perceived value.
- Improves brand loyalty.
- Creates a unique persona that students and staff can connect with emotionally.
- Attracts prospective students and employees.

INTRODUCTION

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS DOCUMENT?

This document provides general direction and guidelines for the visual, written and verbal representation of the RRCC brand, also known as our Brand Identity.

It is vital to the success of a brand to have consistent representation on all print and electronic communications. Correct usage of RRCC's Brand Identity will ensure that the viewer recognizes the materials as coming from RRCC. Maintaining brand consistency is the responsibility of the entire RRCC community.

ALL departments and offices associated with RRCC must follow RRCC's Brand Identity Standards. Any outside agency producing materials for RRCC programs, departments, or other college entities must also follow these guidelines.

IMPORTANT: All RRCC advertising must be reviewed and approved by Marketing and Communications prior to publication or distribution to ensure brand consistency. Materials that are not approved and/or do not meet the college's Brand Identity Standards will be subject to removal.

PRIMARY LOGO

This is the primary logo for the college. All previous RRCC logos should not be used. This version should only be used on materials physically present on the Lakewood or Arvada campus. This includes signage, art installations and digital screen ads. All other materials must use the logo with the “Lakewood | Arvada | Online” descriptor.

Our logo should be used on all RRCC marketing communications. This includes merchandise, promotional materials and digital signage.

The RRCC logo should never be altered, edited or recreated. Only use the original logo files provided by the Marketing and Communications department.

REMEMBER: To maintain consistency and quality, all RRCC advertising must be reviewed and approved by Marketing and Communications prior to publication or distribution.

Get access to RRCC’s logo files by filling out a request at rrcc.edu/marketing-communications.

NOTE: The rectangular boxes surrounding the logo are for display purposes only. They are not part of the RRCC logo.

PRIMARY LOGO | WITH DESCRIPTOR

This is the logo with the addition of the “Lakewood | Arvada | Online” descriptor. Use this version of the logo on all materials NOT physically present on the Lakewood or Arvada campus.

REMEMBER: To maintain consistency and quality, all RRCC advertising must be reviewed and approved by Marketing and Communications prior to publication or distribution.

Get access to RRCC’s logo files by filling out a request at rrcc.edu/marketing-communications.

NOTE: The rectangular boxes surrounding the logo are for display purposes only. They are not part of the RRCC logo.

PRIMARY LOGO | SIZING REQUIREMENTS

The logo cannot be smaller than 2 inches wide on printed material or 250px for digital applications.

The balance of space and content is a key element of design and composition. Always ensure that the logo has an equal amount of space around it.

When using the logo, keep a minimum clear zone of “X” around the logo at all times. The “X” zone is created by using the height of the logo’s R.

REMEMBER: To maintain consistency and quality, all RRCC advertising must be reviewed and approved by Marketing and Communications prior to publication or distribution.

Get access to RRCC’s logo files by filling out a request at rrcc.edu/marketing-communications.

PRIMARY LOGO | COLOR USAGE

On white/light backgrounds, the RRCC logo should ALWAYS be RRCC burgundy or grey.

On colored/dark backgrounds, the RRCC logo should ALWAYS be white. Usage of the white logo is approved on all five RRCC brand colors and on some photo applications (see page 21).

REMEMBER: To maintain consistency and quality, all RRCC advertising must be reviewed and approved by Marketing and Communications prior to publication or distribution.

Get access to RRCC's logo files by filling out a request at rrcc.edu/marketing-communications.

NOTE: The rectangular boxes surrounding the logo are for display purposes only. They are not part of the RRCC logo.

PRIMARY LOGO | BLACK & WHITE PRINTING

NOTE: The rectangular boxes surrounding the logo are for display purposes only. They are not part of the RRCC logo.

Some publications, like newspapers, only allow black & white printing. In those situations, it is acceptable to use the RRCC logo in black or grey. Usage of the white logo on top of black or grey is also acceptable.

REMEMBER: To maintain consistency and quality, all RRCC advertising must be reviewed and approved by Marketing and Communications prior to publication or distribution.

Get access to RRCC's logo files by filling out a request at rrcc.edu/marketing-communications.

In projects that involve multiple companies, placing the RRCC logo next to other logos may be required. In these instances, the space between each logo should be the width of four “X” zones. The “X” zone is created by using the height of the logo’s R.

REMEMBER: To maintain consistency and quality, all RRCC advertising must be reviewed and approved by Marketing and Communications prior to publication or distribution.

Get access to RRCC’s logo files by filling out a request at rrcc.edu/marketing-communications.

PRIMARY LOGO | UNIT IDENTIFIERS

RRCC entities may elect to use their custom “unit identifiers” on marketing materials specifically related to their department/program/organization. Do not use your unit identifier on marketing materials relating to one or more entities on campus. In those situations, use the primary RRCC logo.

REMEMBER: To maintain consistency and quality, all RRCC advertising must be reviewed and approved by Marketing and Communications prior to publication or distribution.

Request your “unit identifier” through Formstack at rrcc.edu/marketing-communications.

PRIMARY LOGO | PHOTO APPLICATION

Do not place the logo on busy backgrounds. Be mindful of how the contents of the photo interact with the logo. It should always be readable and clear. On detailed or complex photos, we recommend placing the white RRCC logo within a shape or a banner in one of RRCC's five brand colors (see page 22 for shape guidelines). You can also use a colored filter on the photo to give the logo more definition. The burgundy and grey RRCC logos should only go on white or nearly white backgrounds.

(Poor placement, busy background)

(Busy background, requires shape for logo)

(The burgundy logo is not on a light background)

(Optimal placement, logo has enough contrast)

(Logo becomes readable when placed in shape)

(The burgundy logo is on a light background)

PRIMARY LOGO | SHAPE PLACEMENT

Some photos do not have enough contrast for direct logo placement. In these scenarios, we recommend placing the logo in a shape or banner in one of RRCC's five brand colors. The shape must extend to the edge of marketing piece. Do not place the logo in stand-alone shapes. Avoid using recognizable, standard shapes like hearts and stars. If you are unsure about your design, contact Marketing and Communications.

PRIMARY LOGO | INCORRECT USAGE

The RRCC logo should never be altered, edited or recreated. Only use the original logo files provided by the Marketing and Communications department.

REMEMBER: To maintain consistency and quality, all RRCC advertising must be reviewed and approved by Marketing and Communications prior to publication or distribution.

BRAND COLORS

Below is RRCC’s official color palette. RRCC burgundy is the primary color for the college and should be used more frequently than all other colors. It is not required for RRCC burgundy to be on all marketing materials, however, at least one of the five main brand colors must be the prominent color on every single marketing piece.

REMEMBER: To maintain consistency and quality, all RRCC advertising must be reviewed and approved by Marketing and Communications prior to publication or distribution.

TYPEFACES

Helvetica Neue LT Std is the primary font for Red Rocks Community College. It should be the main font used on all RRCC marketing materials. It is available in varying weights and spacing styles. We suggest mixing and matching font weights to add visual interest to your design. Being selective with heavier font weights is also a great way to emphasize important pieces of information.

NOTE: Helvetica Neue Lt Std must be licensed and purchased. Always use Helvetica Neue Lt Std on paid advertising, signage and major marketing pieces. If you do not have a license and need to use Helvetica for your project, contact Marketing and Communications for production/design assistance.

For smaller, internal projects, the Arial font family is an acceptable substitute. It should be a preloaded font on most operating systems. Arial is also the preferred alternative when designing web pages and other electronic communications.

BRAND PERSONALITY

If RRCC was a person, what would they be like? How do they speak? How do they dress? What are their interests? Our brand personality is the collection of human characteristics associated with our brand. Humanizing our brand helps our audience form an emotional connection to RRCC. It also sets the foundation for how we communicate through our marketing.

All RRCC marketing should embody the following three attributes: Professional, Innovative, Friendly.

PROFESSIONAL

We hold ourselves to the highest standard and always strive to represent RRCC in a positive light.

1. Clean, intentional design.
(Margins, spacing, visual hierarchy, color theory, emphasis, call to action)
2. High resolution photos.
3. Relevant imagery.
4. Consistent style.
5. Branded content.

INNOVATIVE

We are lifelong learners. We keep up with the world around us and challenge each other to think creatively.

2. Up-to-date photos.
3. Current information.
4. Evolving strategies.
5. Use of new technologies.
6. Following trends.

FRIENDLY

(Supportive, Helpful, Welcoming)

We are a community. We create safe and supportive learning environments.

MARKETING APPLICATION

2. Sharing helpful information.
3. Celebrating achievements.
4. Creating accessible content.
5. Providing support, encouragement and guidance.

BRAND VOICE & TONE | PART 1

At RRCC, we speak with a consistent voice across all publications and platforms. This voice is how we convey our brand and our personality to the world. Our tone adapts to our audience and the purpose of writing. For example, social media writing may be more conversational and use shorter sentences, while writing for a potential foundation donor may call for longer, more dynamic sentences. However, it should always sound as if the same person is speaking. This consistency is the RRCC voice.

Our words are simple, concise and conversational. Less is more — we say what we mean in the simplest way. Our priority is to help our audience get the information they're looking for and the support they're seeking.

In writing, our voice is created through our word choice, sentence structure, and point of view. When writing in the RRCC Voice, a few key things to remember are:

- BE INCLUSIVE: After first reference, use first person plural pronouns such as we, our, and us. Instead of “RRCC offers degrees and certificates,” say “We offer degrees and certificates.”
- BE PERSONABLE: Create closeness to your audience by speaking directly to them. Use pronouns such as you and your. Instead of “Students can register today,” say “You can register today.”
- BE HELPFUL: You may be an expert, but avoid coming across as bossy. Instead of “You must login to The Portal to register for classes,” say “Trying to register for classes? Login to The Portal.”

BRAND VOICE & TONE | PART 2

- BE POSITIVE: Instead of “You can’t sign up for classes without taking the online orientation,” say “Take the online orientation to get started on your course registration.”
- BE FRIENDLY: Create friendliness through the use of warm, conversational words. Though informal words are great, carelessness such as spelling and grammar errors are not.
- BE SIMPLE: When possible, choose simple, easily understandable words. In the world of academia, there are many institutionalized words that should be used, even if they are a bit more “complex.” Don’t dumb down the language. Instead, provide context to make it understandable.
- BE CLEAR: Use clear language. Avoid jargon and idioms, which may be confusing to your readers. Write in the active voice, avoiding the passive voice when possible. Instead of “Club applications will be collected by Student Life,” say “Student Life will collect club applications.”
- BE EMPATHETIC: Your goal as a content writer is to help users complete their tasks and understand information. When writing, be aware of this and make sure what you are saying is helping them reach that goal.
- FEELING AND EMOTIONS: Consider why users are reading your content and how they are likely to be feeling. Are they current students, frustrated because they can’t figure out which classes to take? Are they new students, excited because they just finished applying to RRCC? Perhaps visiting community members are confused about where to park. When writing, adjust your tone to be conscientious of the wide range of emotions your readers are probably experiencing.

FOX MASCOT LOGO

Below is RRCC's official mascot logo. Use the white fox on colored backgrounds and the outlined fox on white backgrounds. The mascot should never be used as a replacement for RRCC's primary logo. To prevent the mascot from being misused, the Marketing and Communications team has created a watermarked version of the fox. If you would like to use the fox, mock up your design using the watermarked file and send it to Marketing for approval. To receive the watermarked version of the fox, fill out a request at rrcc.edu/marketing-communications.

FOX MASCOT LOGO | APPLICATION

The fox mascot should only be used as a secondary graphic element. It should never be used as a replacement for RRCC's primary logo. You can use it as an icon, decorative watermark, t-shirt graphic, or pattern. All other uses require special permission from Marketing and Communications.

Whenever the fox appears on a marketing piece, the primary RRCC logo must also be present. Exceptions to this rule may be granted for certain RRCC swag items and art installations.

Some marketing pieces may benefit from a co-branded arrangement of the RRCC logo and the fox mascot. If you would like to utilize a co-branded logo arrangement, consult Marketing and Communications.

Do not use the fox as part of a logo. The fox mascot belongs to all departments/programs/organizations at RRCC.

REMEMBER: To maintain consistency and quality, all RRCC advertising must be reviewed and approved by Marketing and Communications prior to publication or distribution.

POWERPOINT TEMPLATE

This is RRCC's official PowerPoint template. We've created 16 slides to help you get started on your presentation. To keep your PowerPoint engaging, we recommend mixing and matching at least 5-6 slide types. To use the PowerPoint template, fill out a request at rrcc.edu/marketing-communications.

The image displays 16 different PowerPoint slide templates arranged in a grid. Each slide is a dark red color with a white title box and a subtitle box. The Red Rocks Community College logo is visible in the bottom right corner of each slide. The templates vary in layout, including text-heavy slides, slides with images, and slides with multiple columns of text. Some slides include placeholder text like "ADD YOUR TITLE" and "ADD YOUR SUBTITLE", while others include sample text and images of students and campus scenes.

SOCIAL MEDIA TEMPLATES | PART 2

Marketing and Communications has developed 20 social media templates to give you a starting point when creating your design. You do not have to use these templates, but they are available if needed. If you create a custom social media post, remember our identity guidelines. Try to match the style of this template set (more templates on previous page).
