NOMINATION FORM

Deadline for Nomination: Second Friday of December

The Arvada-Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth (AWRSAY) program is a unique collaboration between service clubs, organizations, the cities of Arvada and Wheat Ridge, Jefferson County Public Schools, Red Rocks Community College Arvada Campus and businesses in Arvada and Wheat Ridge. AWRSAY's mission is to facilitate change, ongoing recognition, educational and leadership opportunities for Arvada and Wheat Ridge youth who have overcome adversity.

We will honor middle and high school youth ages 13-19 who have demonstrated personal strength, resiliency and determination in overcoming adversity and making positive changes in their lives or in the lives of those with whom they come in contact. Example areas of overcoming adversity may be:

- Education/learning
- Personal
- Physical
- Emotional
- Social
- Academic

Youth must demonstrate consistent school attendance with a minimum of passing grades and a strong desire to learn.

Youth from Arvada and Wheat Ridge area middle and high schools (public, private and home schooled) will be considered. Awards will include a $900 (must take at least 6 credits) scholarship (one-time renewal can be requested) to Red Rocks Community College for high school seniors, monetary awards and community opportunities for youth in grades 7-11 up to $500. All selected youth will be honored at the AWRSAY 2011 Recognition ceremony in March.
