

Belgium and France

Study Abroad Trip - Spring 2017

EXPLORE THE BATTLEFIELDS OF WORLD WAR I AND WORLD WAR II

In the Spring of 2017 RRCC will offer the unique opportunity to travel to Belgium and France to complete a field study focused on the causes, actions and consequences of WWI and WWII on the world and literature. Students will enhance their understanding of each war in a global context. For this trip we will visit Ypres, Belgium (Flanders Fields); Somme area, France (Somme battlefields); and Normandy France (D-Day invasion). Our last three days will be spent exploring Paris, France visiting the sites of the Lost Generation.

This experience requires students to complete HIS 112-01T (3 credits) in conjunction with LIT 115-01T (3 credits). We strongly recommend that students also enroll in FRE 275-001 French Conversation for Travelers (1 credit). LIT & HIS classes held Fridays 9:30-11:30am beginning Feb 3, 2017.

Cost: $2900-$3200 US dollars
