

Claro Considered: An Academic Conference

Featuring student presentations of scholarship
published in Claro (the Red Rocks scholarly journal)

April 22-24 (Community Room)

Attending an academic conference looks great on your CV/resume!
Please consider attending one or more sessions.

Tuesday, April 22 Sessions

1:30-2:45 pm

"Choice & Consumption"

This panel explores the intersection of personal choice, consumption, and health.

Evelyn Palma, "Is Food Thy Medicine?"

Anthony Ortals, "Marijuana in Moderation: Relaxing Responsibly"

Mishauna Lambuth, "Molly's Journey to Living Smoke-Free"

3:00-4:15 pm

"People in Place"

These presentations, which include a photo essay and a radio essay, discuss people's interaction with public space.

Tanner Marshall, "The Glorious Greenback"

Parry Matte, "Rooftops and Puddle Diving: Finding Medicine in the Middle of It"

Emily Johnson, "Thoughts on #Coffee, #Card Games, and Regaining #Community"

Wednesday, April 23 Sessions

12:00-1:15 pm

"Family Matters"

This panel, consisting of two videos and a literary analysis, explores the nuclear family and the parent-child relationship from a number of angles.

Sarah Cash, "After"

Kim Gallegos, "My Warrior Princess in the Age of Zero Tolerance"

Kai Duby, "Binary Oppositions Shared and Overcome: A Deconstruction of Sexuality Along Family Fault Lines in Bechdel's Fun Home"

1:30-2:45 pm

"In Conflict and in Crisis"

These multimedia presentations examine various United States conflicts or crises, and its reactions and potential for recovery from them, both historical and into the future.

Conner Walker, "The Cuban Missile Crisis"

George Niehouse, "Bullets and Baseball"

Rachel Anderson, "Destination Mars: Our First Step Toward the Stars"

3:00-4:15 pm

"Prevention and Treatment"

This panel discusses some traditional and non-traditional approaches to medicine.

Nicole Schlesinger, "A Plague on All Our Houses: The Necessity of Childhood Vaccines"

Monica Buelt, "Hepatitis B: Understanding Your Disease, Symptoms, and Lab Results"

Deborah Houk, "Aromatherapy for Posttraumatic Stress Sufferers and Their Caretakers"

Thursday, April 24 Sessions

12:00-1:15 pm

"Trauma & Healing: Art's Role"

This multimedia panel, which includes visuals, a video, and a podcast, situates trauma in the context of art and representation.

Stephanie Hildebrandt, "Images of Suffering: Look Deeply and Think"

Amy Buchanan, "When the Violet Conquers the Wolf"

Hannah Baker, "Hypergraphia"

1:30-2:45 pm

"A Picture's Worth: Image Analysis"

Students from Toni Nicholas's history class present their work contextualizing famous historical images that, together, trace a history and potential future of human industry.

Sumner Evans, "Dreams of Flight"

Kyle Dymowski, "Lunch Atop a Skyscraper"

Zac Champion, "Little Boy"

3:00-4:15 pm

"Implementation of a Prenatal Education Program in Grand County, CO"

Students from the 2014 Physician Assistant class present their well-researched plans.

Candace Daugherty, Abbey Jordan, Rebecca Powell, Janice Van Bockern