

RED Talks:

AN ACADEMIC CONFERENCE FOR STUDENTS

Join us in the Community Room for this year's Claro conference! Add value to your resume—and perhaps score some extra credit—by attending one session or several. Enjoy a refreshment and a refreshing break from your usual routine.

April 14th

12-1:15

MARKED

This image-rich panel studies the visible and invisible ways we are marked by accidents, abuse, and even science.

1:30-2:45

ETHICAL EATS

These papers present the health and ethical considerations of our culture's consumption habits.

3-4:15

THE SCOPE OF ART

This audio-visual panel considers art's potential to transform and inspire.

April 15th

12-1:15

CONTESTED IDENTITIES

These panelists examine the effects of marginalization and the struggle to self-define of various subcultures and minority groups in a series of broadsheets, a website, and an essay.

1:30-2:45

VISUALIZING HISTORY

Students from Toni Nicholas's History class take us on a visual tour through important historical moments.

April 16th

12-1:15

REACHING FOR HEALTH

Physician Assistant students present their well-researched rural health outreach proposals.

1:30-2:45

ISSUES ABROAD

This audio-visual panel looks at the plight of various peoples—and animals—in foreign lands.

3-4:15

FINANCIAL FUTURES

In this audio-visual panel, scholars discuss personal and national economics.