2014-2015 Parent Marital/Tax Filing Status

Entire form must be completed in black ink.

Printed Name: _____ Phone: _____

Your 2014-2015 FAFSA application has been identified by the Department of Education for potentially containing conflicting information between your parents Marital Status and their Tax Filing Status. You are required to resolve this conflicting information before your financial aid application can be processed. Check one option below and take the next steps listed.

Check the appropriate option:

1. _____ I verify that my parents' information on my FAFSA and their Federal Tax Return filing status is correct.

Confirm this on the chart below:

*If your parent(s) answered "Other" to any of the tax filing statuses above, there may be conflicting information that requires a resolution. Please attach a letter that explains why your parents were allowed to use that filing status given their marital status. We may require additional information from you and/or your parents AND they may be required to amend their federal tax return.

2. _____ My parent(s) updated their taxes to reflect their correct marital status.

Attach a signed copy of their amended 2013 Federal Tax return, IRS Tax Form 1040X.

3. _____ My parent(s) updated the FAFSA to reflect their correct marital status.

Allow one week after you make corrections to your FAFSA for our office to verify this change.

Important: Any time you make changes to your FAFSA, we may be required to collect additional information from you. We will send an email to your RRCC student email address if you need to submit any additional information.

By signing below, you certify that all information on this form is true and complete to the best of your knowledge. If asked, you agree to provide proof of this information. If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined $10,000, sent to prison, or both.
