

Biology in TANZANIA! Spring 2018

BIO 228: Field Biology (TANZANIA)–4 credits

Trip Duration: Sunday, May 13th – Thursday, May 24th, 2018

Five Classroom Sessions: 9am-noon on the following Fridays: Jan 26, Feb 16, Mar 9, Apr 6, and May 4 (plus one post-trip meeting from 4-7pm on Friday, 6/1)

Highlights:

- Wildlife safaris in the best National Parks including the Serengeti, Tarangire, and Lake Manyara
- Two-day exploration of Ngorongoro Crater
- Three-day exploration of Serengeti National Park
- Visits to small local villages
- Experience Maasai lands and lifestyle
- Travel across multiple vegetation zones
- Amazing birds and wildlife!
- Lions, giraffes, elephants, rhinos, zebras, monkeys, and more!

RESERVE YOUR SPOT ASAP!

Contact Kelly for instructions on how to pay your deposit: 303-914-6639 office #2564

kelly.worden@rrcc.edu

Last Info Session =
Wednesday, 11/8 4-5pm
Room #2565

Trip Cost: $5615 (with 15 students) OR $5915 (with 12 students)

Staggered payment plans available!

Above Price Includes: all airfare, ground transportation, accommodations, activities, meals, gratuities for guides, visa fee for US passport holders, and comprehensive travel insurance including emergency medical protection

Above Price Excludes: tuition and fees (~$769 for 4 credits w/COF), books (~$50), any vaccination costs, spending money

* We are limited to 15 students – your non-refundable $500 deposit reserves your spot on a “first come-first reserved” basis*

For more information contact:

Steve Kaye x6200 steve.kaye@rrcc.edu
Kelly Worden x6639 kelly.worden@rrcc.edu

