

Courses for the First Semester

If a student starts the program in the Fall Semester, he/she should take the following courses:

These courses prepare the student to take the D certification exam for Wastewater Treatment. There are No prerequisites for these courses.

WQM 100 – Introduction to Water Quality

WQM 125 – C and D Review for Wastewater

WQM 105 – Specific Calculations (optional depending on student's math level)

If a student starts the program in the Spring Semester, he/she should take the following courses:

These courses prepare the student to take the D certification exam for Water Treatment. There are No prerequisites for these courses.

WQM 100 – Introduction to Water Quality

WQM 124 - C and D Review for Water

WQM 105 – Specific Calculations (optional depending on student's math level)

*A student should consult with Mike Smith for advising on courses for the second semester of study. You may contact him at mike.smith@rrcc.edu.