Qualify for Work Study?

Financial Aid has offered funds to 96 eligible students from the work study waitlist, which may be viewed in The Rock student portal. Please be sure to visit us as soon as possible to avoid an offer cancelation.

Important Financial Aid Terms To Know:

Disbursement: When financial aid is applied to your student account; normally by the Monday following the 15-week census date in fall and spring.

Refund: The difference between what you owe and your financial aid. Refunds are processed through Higher One and can be expected within 14 days from the disbursement date.

(Note: Payments made by credit card will be refunded to the original card first used and any overage will be processed through Higher One. Also, if you have not received your Higher One card, visit the Cashier's office for details.)
