

STUDY ABROAD IN

Scotland

Visit

EDINBURGH

STIRLING

GLASGOW

SCOTTISH HIGHLANDS

Earn 6 credits while visiting castles; walking in the Highlands; exploring boulevards, alleys, kirks, and closes; and learning how the Scots shaped the modern world.

Itinerary (Tentative)

DAY 1 Adjustment Day

Walking tour of Edinburgh, general orientation with landmarks

Dinner out

Initial impressions writing about the hostel common area

DAY 2 Enough travel already- Museum of Scotland followed by visit to Elephant Café where Harry Potter was written; followed by two hours of writing about the museum

Walk around Edinburgh University

DAY 3 Edinburgh Castle

Hollyrood-Queen's Castle

Climb of Arthur's seat

Two hours writing on top of the summit or back at the base

DAY 4 Train to Glasgow

Exploration of public art and Art Deco Hotel and Tea Room

DAY 5 Train to Stirling

Visit castle, William Wallace Monument, City of Stirling

Writing on the train

DAY 6 Visit Botanic garden, Art museum

Lunch and writing time

Portrait Gallery

DAY 7 Free morning in Edinburgh

Meet up - Scott Monument

Architectural Walking Tour

DAY 8 Open Day- Highlands Tour/Ferry Tour

Details

DATES: Around May 21 – June 3

COST: $2200-$2500

COURSE AND INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

ENG 231 - Creative Non-fiction

HUM 123 - The Modern Era

Students must take both classes.

Classes meet Tuesday Nights in the Spring

INSTRUCTORS

amy.braziller@rcc.edu • 303-914-6212

paul.gallagher@rcc.edu • 303-914-6123