

Red Rocks Community College Emergency Medical Responder Spring 2019 Course Information

The Emergency Medical Responder course at Red Rocks Community College designed to teach people to care for ill or injured patients until an ambulance arrives. It is ideal for anyone wishing to obtain comprehensive advanced first aid skills. Participants may include police officers, park rangers, camp counselors, and volunteer firefighters. It is also an excellent preparation course for students considering becoming an EMT. Upon successful completion of the course students are eligible to take the National Registry of EMTs (NREMT) Emergency Medical Responder written certification exam. Upon successful completion of the NREMT exam you will be able to apply for Colorado EMR certification.

The course includes American Heart Association CPR for BLS providers training and certification. The format is approximately half lecture and half small group skills practice. The only pre-requisite is age 16 by the first day of class. Biology 106 is a recommended co-requisite.
