

F-1 and M-1 Student Budget Sheet

The following budget sheet shows the estimated minimum costs associated with studying at RRCC for 1 academic year (9 months). You are required to fill out this document and show evidence proving you have access to liquid funds for the minimum costs required for the program you wish to enroll in. International students must recertify their finances each academic year.

This document must be completed and submitted to international@rrcc.edu.

I will be studying at RRCC for 1 year or more I will be studying for only 1 semester (Enter ½ cost)

Item	Cost (USD)	Selected
Tuition and Fees (Choose one below)
<input type="checkbox"/> Non-Resident ESL Tuition Cost	$10,760
<input type="checkbox"/> Non-Resident Tuition Cost for 12 Credits	$17,903
Housing/Living/Personal Expenses (Choose one below)
<input type="checkbox"/> Living on your own	$20,898
<input type="checkbox"/> Living with a sponsor	$15,453
Expenses for Dependents
<input type="checkbox"/> Dependents	$0 if none or $5000 each
Other Costs (Select both)
<input type="checkbox"/> Medical Insurance	$1,287
<input type="checkbox"/> Books and School Supplies	$1,460
Calculate Total Expenses Here: $

To receive an I-20 document from RRCC, your budget sheet must show a minimum of the following amounts for one academic year:

Intensive ESL

Living on your own: $34,405

Living with a sponsor: $28,960

College Classes

Living on your own: $41,548

Living with a sponsor: $36,103

This is not a guarantee of your costs. You may incur other expenses including, but not limited to; airfare, enrolling in more than 12 credits, field trips, clothing, souvenirs, entertainment, cell phone data/local sim card, transportation, etc.