

RRCC Colorado-Utah Field Trip

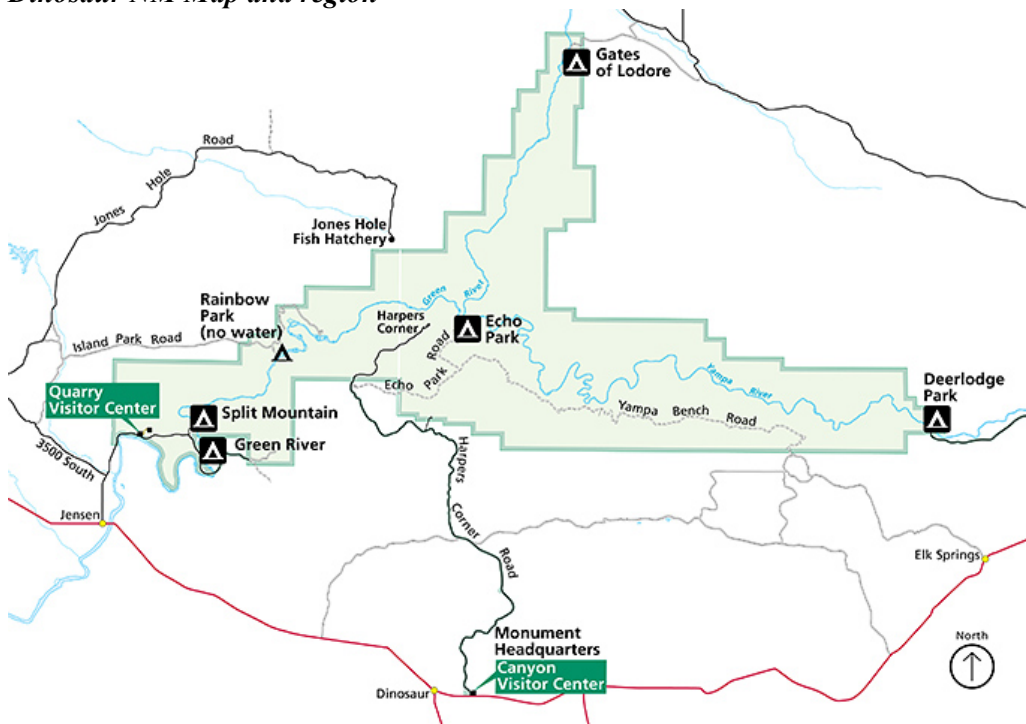

Dinosaur National Monument

RRCC Honors Program Contract Option

Spring Term 2018 courses + Spring Break Camping Field Trip
March 26th – March 30th 2018

*Anthropology 108 Rock Art SS3 +
Astronomy 155 Astronomy of Ancient Cultures SC2 - 6 credits*

Dinosaur NM Map and region

Dinosaur National Monument Sites and Activities - Daytime

Rock Art Petroglyphs Recording

Rock Art Pictographs Interpretation

Campsite Astronomy Sites and Activities - Nighttime

Telescopes studies every night with no light pollution!

Lynnette Hoerner: Lynnette.hoerner@rrcc.edu

Chris Howell: chris.howell@rrcc.edu Room Office WE2636 Phone Office 303-914-6551

OVERVIEW:

Archaeology of World Rock Art ANTI0801T offered with Astronomy of Ancient Cultures AST15501T – Howell + Hoerner as your faculty and tour guides!!!

*-Classroom meetings Fridays 9am-1pm March 2, 9, 16, 23 of 2018.

*-Drive and camp trip with Honors contract option March 26th-March 30th M-F Spring Break 2018.

*-Estimated cost per student 100$ all-inclusive plus tuition, books, 1 group dinner based on 16 students.

-Health check-up, Medical insurance, RRCC signed travel waiver and permission of instructor required.

-15th overall regional drive/camp field offering by ANT (usually over spring break) at RRCC.

-3rd pairing of ANT and science based courses and 2nd honors offering.

-Tuition at Red Rocks: Students must register for both courses. Students may be eligible to use financial aid for courses, check with your financial aid advisor.

-100 $ trip fee to RRCC cashier office for trip is required to reserve slot as well as permission of instructor. Space is limited and the trip fills quickly each time it is offered.

First information meeting will be in early Fall term of 2017 followed by a late fall term meeting and an early spring term 2018 meeting. Time and place will be announced.*

PLEASE EMAIL instructors at earliest convenience if interested...***