

India Adventure – RRCC

Spring Term 2018 courses +
Maymester Break Field Trip May 16th – May 30th 2018
Philosophy & Anthropology - 6 credits

Dehli Sites and Activities

Visit and worship as you like at the Ghandi Birla Hindu Temple

Work in the Sikh kitchen feeding those in need at Gurudwal Banga Sahib

*Visually walk through the great epics of India carved in stone at the giant
Akshardam Temple*

*Walk and shop the Dehli Silk Road Market and the 4th largest mosque in the world Jama
Masjid*

Yes we are going to the Taj Majal! Sunrise visit with few people and cool temps!

Visit the largest fort of the Early Modern Era – Agra Fort

India is changing fast – no where more so than the new Dehli-Agra corridor we will travel on

Leh and Ladakh Sites and Activities

Fly to the Himalayas on China-Tibet-India border for home stay with Buddhist nuns (sisters of Tara) and visits to ancient Buddhist monasteries

The Himalaya climate preserves rock art, sacred philosophy texts, etc.

Dates of Travel: May 16-May 30 2018 for 14 day trip (exact dates depend on monsoon timing)

Instructors:

M. Jonas Mabey: jonas.mabey@rrcc.edu

Room 2634 303-914-6368

Chris Howell: chris.howell@rrcc.edu

Room 2636 303-914-6551

Courses are 3 credits each (students enroll in both):

PHIL 20301T: Intro. to Buddhism--- Mabey

ANT22501T: Anthropology of Religion--- Howell

Tentative class times are Mondays 3-6pm in April and early May 2018

Costs: Approx. 3000$ total + tuition/visa/books/spending

Airfare and Land package includes: Round-trip airfare from Denver to Mumbai, India; all Lodging, all internal air flights (3) and land travel in India; admissions; guides & interpreters, travel insurance and some meals.

Airfare and Land package does NOT include: passport & visa costs; books; tuition; Additional meals; gratuity; health/immunization shots, spending money; etc.

Health care checkup, medical insurance, India visa in passport, and permission of instructor required

Tuition at Red Rocks:

You should plan on taking both courses for credit at Red Rocks. You may be eligible to use your financial aid to pay for the costs of travel, books, and tuition as part of your coursework for fall term. Please consult your financial aid advisor.

*1000$ deposit to RRCC cashier office for India 2018 trip is required to reserve slot. Space is limited and the trip fills quickly each time it is offered.

DEPOSIT is key to holding your space. We just opened up deposits in July 2017 and already have half the slots filled. We must operate on first come first served basis as an open admission community college so do get yours in asap for one of the 18 slots available.

First information meeting will be in early Fall term of 2017 followed by a late fall term meeting and an early spring term 2018 meeting. Time and place will be announced.

PLEASE EMAIL instructors at earliest convenience if interested....**