

RRCC HLC Training – Introduction to Unit 3

Mike Coste and Jen Macken

August 10, 2018

Hi everyone.

I apologize for getting this out a little later than the others, as this may well be the most important unit. As with the prior units, start this unit by reading the Unit 3 Overview, and the rest will make sense from there. Please do not hesitate to let me know if you have any questions or need anything clarified.

I appreciate those of you who have been providing feedback on the past two units, and I hope you continue to do so. If you have not yet completed the surveys, please do, so that we can make this experience even better for the next round of participants.

Thanks!

Mike
