

STUDY ABROAD

Spring Term 2018
Courses + Trip to
London: May 22-31, 2018
Save your spot today!

ESCAPE TO LITERARY LONDON

Explore the writings of William Shakespeare, Jane Austen, Arthur Conan Doyle, Virginia Woolf and many more in the places that inspired them. Immerse yourself in writing about your travels through London and nearby literary locales.

Visit Big Ben, The Tower of London, Shakespeare's Globe Theatre, Canterbury Cathedral, and the Sherlock Holmes and Jane Austen Museums. Take a riverboat ride on the Thames.

COURSES

ENG 221 Creative Writing (3 credits) &
LIT 222 British Lit Since 1770 (3 credits).

You must enroll in both classes for the Spring semester. Classes meet on Tuesday evenings 5:30-7:30 in the Spring semester.

COST

$2,800

Includes airfare, accommodation, transportation, admission fees.

Not included: tuition, books, meals, spending money.

FOR MORE INFORMATION or to put your name on the waitlist:

amy.braziller@rcc.edu or paul.gallagher@rcc.edu