CENSUS DATE (LAST DAY TO DROP WITH A REFUND)

Wednesday, February 6, 2019

This is the last day you can remove yourself from this class without having to pay for the class and without the class showing on your permanent student record. If you are considering dropping the class, please talk to your instructor first. If you are on financial aid, you should also consult a financial aid advisor before dropping a class. All students are encouraged to see an academic advisor about how dropping may affect their goals.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Academic misconduct consists of plagiarizing, cheating, or committing any other form of academic misconduct including, but not limited to, unauthorized collaboration, falsification of information, and/or helping someone else violate reasonable standards for academic behavior. Students who engage in any type of academic dishonesty are subject to both academic consequences (as determined by the instructor) and to disciplinary action, according to the current Student Handbook (http://www.rrcc.edu/student-life/handbook). All academic integrity incidents shall be sent to the Vice President of Student Success, Dr. Lisa Fowler.

CLASSROOM CONDUCT

Respect your classmates. If you have a cell phone, please turn it on vibrate. If you need to take a call, quietly excuse yourself from the classroom.
