Assignments/Grading:

The following is an outline of chapters and subjects to be covered. As this course is in an accelerated form, we will be advancing at a rapid pace. This outline indicates the chapters to read, the individual assignments, and final assessment/test.

In-Class discussions (10 points): Discussions are designed to support course content. There will be at least three discussion questions that you are asked to respond to individually and then to respond to your classmates feedback with comments and opinions. Discussion questions are part of in-class activities.

Individual assignments/test (90 points): The assignments in the course are designed to assess your knowledge and comprehension of the material.

Evening One - Friday

Required Reading

- Chapters 1 through 9 will be covered in the first class. Please read prior to class so you are prepared to work through exercises related to this material and the financial concepts discussed.

Assignment

- 1st assignment - submit by end of class – 20 points

Day Two - Saturday

Required Reading

- Chapters 10 through 23 will be covered in the second class. Please read prior to class so you are prepared to work through exercises related to this material and the financial concepts discussed.

Assignments

- 2nd assignment – submit in class – 20 points
- 3rd assignment – submit by the end of class – 20 points
- Final Project/Test – 30 points

Student/Instructor Expectations:

Student Behavior: Please keep in mind that appropriate classroom behavior is expected in online courses as with in-classroom sessions. If your behavior is disrespectful or disruptive to me or to your fellow students, it will not be tolerated.

Cheating, including plagiarism, will not be tolerated, and discipline will range from a 0 for the assignment to expulsion from this class, at my sole discretion. Any suspicion of cheating will be forwarded to the Vice President of Students. See the Student Code of Conduct in the Student Handbook for additional information on student conduct.

Revised August, 2015

Mandatory Reporting, Our College is committed to preserving a safe and welcoming educational environment for all students. As part of this effort, I have an obligation to report certain issues relating to the health and safety of campus community members. I must report to the appropriate College officials any allegation of discrimination or harassment. Sexual misconduct, which includes sexual harassment, non-consensual sexual contact, non-consensual sexual intercourse, and sexual exploitation, is considered a form of discrimination.

In addition to reporting all discrimination and harassment claims, I must report all allegations of dating violence or domestic violence, child abuse or neglect, and/or credible threats of harm to yourself or others. Such reports may trigger contact from a College official who will want to talk with you about the incident that you have shared. In almost all cases, it will be your decision whether you wish to speak with that individual. If you would like more information, you may reach the Title IX/EO Coordinator: Deborah Houser, Assistant Director of Human Resources/Deputy Title IX Coordinator, 303-914-6224 or Deborah.houser@rrcc.edu

Reports to law enforcement can be made at the Red Rocks Campus Police Department behind the Welcome Desk at the Main Entrance or rpd.dispatch@rrcc.edu at 303-914-6394.

If you would like a confidential resource, please contact Deborah Houser, Assistant Director of Human Resources/Deputy Title IX Coordinator, 303-914-6224 or Deborah.houser@rrcc.edu
