EVALUATION PROCESS

Goal-Setting Phase

Within the first month of the evaluation period, the supervisor and employee meet to discuss the job duties and establish performance goals for the year. The employee and supervisor will also review the current position description for accuracy. Job duties, core work competencies, and performance goals should be documented in the appropriate sections along with performance expectations. The deadline for this is May 15. Weights for each category are to be determined through a collaborative conversation between the supervisor and employee.

Progress Review Phase

At midyear or as often as deemed necessary, the supervisor and employee meet to discuss performance and to decide if goals need to be revised. The supervisor provides feedback to the employee on the accomplishment of established job duties and goals. A mid-year evaluation is to be complete by October 15.

Year-End Evaluation

At the end of the evaluation period, the supervisor will complete the overall performance evaluation in a narrative form. This must then be forwarded to the employee 48 hours prior to the final performance evaluation meeting. The employee has the option to complete a year-end self-evaluation. If the employee chooses to complete this, it must be forwarded 24 hours prior to the final performance evaluation meeting. Completed evaluations are due to Human Resources by April 15.

Employee Self-Assessment

Employee's opportunity to self-assess goals and performance as it relates to success and areas of improvement, and areas of Professional Development that the employee wants to focus on.
