

Student Employment – Financial Aid – Clerical Assistant III

Department: Financial Aid

Position Title: Clerical Assistant III

Position Type: Work study/Student Hourly Considered

Job Description:

The Financial Aid Clerical Assistant III provides high-level customer service at the front counter and remotely as needed. This includes regularly advising students on Financial Aid processes, answering phone calls/voicemails, returning and processing emails, data entry and providing information regarding the FAFSA application.

Job Requirements:

- Must be able to provide excellent customer service to students and families
- Demonstrate interpersonal communication skills
- Should have basic computer skills with Microsoft Word, Excel, and Outlook
- Be able to learn/have experience with Ellucian Banner software, data management software, SARS student information software and BDM electronic file management
- Must demonstrate professionalism at all times
- Must have the ability to write professionally and without errors
- Must have great attention to detail
- Will be trained in and practice Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act laws regarding confidentiality of student records.

You must be eligible for student employment (enrolled in a minimum of six credit hours for the semester in which you will be working) to apply for this position.

Because this position requires many details to learn, we ask that applicants commit to one year.

Skills you will gain/enhance:

You will learn and improve skills that are applicable in many industries: customer service, communicating complex information in ways that are easy to understand, problem solving, and working in an inclusive environment. In addition, you will use Microsoft Excel and Word to complete various projects. During each semester that you work in Financial Aid, there will be many opportunities for skills enhancement that you will use both inside and outside the office. Our student employees take part in various training sessions related to the regulations of Financial Aid and best practices with regard to customer service and working as a team. In addition to the in-house training, our student employees also take part in sessions provided by the Career Success Center when available. These may include sessions related to interviewing and resume building. There is a direct investment in your success well after your tenure as a Financial Aid Clerical Assistant.

Job Payment Information:

Wage: Starting at $12.75/hour

Paid: Bi-weekly (Fridays)
